Friends of Blackburn Cathedral Music

Singing can be a life-long journey at Blackburn Cathedral.

Through their membership of Cathedral choirs, around 150 volunteer singers are currently involved in music making on a weekly basis.
The choirs cater for boys, girls, women and men.
The age of choir members ranges from 4-74 years.

Our Purpose

We aim to raise funds in order to:

Enhance further the reputation and profile of the music at Blackburn Cathedral

Promote an annual concert series

Provide bursaries for choristers to learn musical instruments

Provide bursaries to help meet the travel costs of the choristers

Hold social and recreational activities for the choirs

Enable choir exchanges and tours

Commission music

Our Actions

Since its inception in 1999 FoBCM, supported by sponsorship, has raised in excess of £100, 000, which has enabled us to:

Provide orchestras for the Cathedral's Patronal Festival Eucharists

Support the musical development of choristers

Stage an annual concert series

Sponsor musical events, including Gala Concerts such as The Christmas Spectacular and Last Night of The Proms

Support European and American choir tours

Provide adaptable staging for Services and Concerts

Rewards of Membership

Complimentary concert tickets for Patrons*

Entry to Gala Concert Receptions*

Free Music and More Magazine

Advance notification of concerts

Priority booking for all concerts

Invitations to FoBCM musical events

Exclusive, guided tour focusing on musical aspects of Blackburn Cathedral

* Subject to subscription level
