GERONTIUS 439 I

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise,
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.

O loving wisdom of our God!
when all was sin and shame,
a second Adam to the fight and to the rescue came.

O wisest love! that flesh and blood,
which did in Adam fail,
should strive afresh against their foe,
should strive and should prevail;

And that a higher gift than grace should flesh and blood refine, God's presence and his very self,
and essence all-divine.

And in the garden secretly,
and on the cross on high,
should teach his followers and inspire
to suffer and to die.

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise,
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.

John Henry Newman (1801 – 1890) adapted.

The Greeting

The president greets the people

In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Grace, mercy and peace
from God our Father
and the Lord Jesus Christ
be with you
and also with you.

The president introduces the celebration

The Prayer of Preparation

Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Prayers of Penitence

The deacon says

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son Jesus Christ to save us from our sins, to be our advocate in heaven, and to bring us to eternal life.

Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, firmly resolved to keep God's commandments
and to live in love and peace with all.

Most merciful God,
Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
we confess that we have sinned
in thought, word and deed.
We have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
In your mercy
forgive what we have been,
help us to amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be;
that we may do justly,
love mercy,
and walk humbly with you, our God.
Amen.

The president says

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Gloria

The choir sings

Glory be to God on high,
and in earth peace, good will towards men.

We praise thee, we bless thee,
we worship thee, we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,
O Lord God, heavenly King,
God the Father almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ:
O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.

Thou that takest away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer.

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father,
have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord;
thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost,
art the Most High,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

The Collect

Let us pray.

Silence is kept – please remain standing

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you;
and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power
faithfully to fulfil them;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Please sit down

The Liturgy of the Word

Old Testament Reading

Read by Ruth Watton

(Jeremiah 11.18-20)

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah.

It was the Lord who made it known to me, and I knew;
then you showed me their evil deeds.

But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter.

And I did not know it was against me that they devised schemes, saying,
'Let us destroy the tree with its fruit,
let us cut him off from the land of the living,
so that his name will no longer be remembered!'

But you, O Lord of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind,
let me see your retribution upon them,
for to you I have committed my cause.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

(54)

The choir sings

Save me, O God, for thy Name's sake : and avenge me in thy strength.
Hear my prayer, O God : and hearken unto the words of my mouth.
For strangers are risen up against me :
and tyrants, which have not God before their eyes, seek after my soul.
Behold, God is my helper : the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.
He shall reward evil unto mine enemies :
destroy thou them in thy truth.

An offering of a free heart will I give thee,
and praise thy Name, O Lord :
because it is so comfortable.

For he hath delivered me out of all my trouble :
and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

New Testament Reading

Read by Joyce Wicks

(James 3.13 - 4.3, 7-8a)

A reading from the letter of James.

Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures.

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand with the president to sing

Gradual Hymn

SANDYS 456

Teach me, my God and King,
in all things thee to see,
and what I do in anything,
to do it as for thee.

For those who look on glass
on it may stay the eye;
or if it pleases, through it pass,
and then the heaven espy.

All may of thee partake:
nothing can be so mean,
which with this tincture, 'For thy sake'
will not grow bright and clean.

A servant with this clause
makes drudgery divine;
who sweeps a room, as for thy laws,
makes that and the action fine.

This is the famous stone
that turneth all to gold;
for that which God doth touch and own cannot for less be told.

George Herbert (1593-1633)

The Gospel

The deacon says

(Mark 9.30-37)

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus and his disciples went on from the villages of Caesarea Philippi, and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, 'The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

The Dean

There is a period of silence after the sermon for reflection.

Please stand with the president for the Creed.

The Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The president invites the congregation to kneel or sit down

The Prayers of Intercession

for those who mourn, and remember those who have recently died,

Michael Sheldon

those whose anniversaries fall this week:

Elizabeth Durham, Evelyn Conrad, Geoffrey Williams, Jane Fairhurst,

Susan Parker, Thomas Shuttleworth, Walter Heald, Barbara Thornber

And at the end:

Merciful Father,
accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son
our Saviour, Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Please stand with the president for the peace

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

The president introduces the Peace and then says

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
and also with you.

The deacon says

Let us greet one another with a word of peace.

Please do not move from your seat when offering a greeting.

The pandemic has presented the cathedral with many challenges, including a significant loss of income.

Please give what you prayerfully can as you leave our worship by using the collection point on the way out or use the Cathedral's Just Giving scheme which you can access using the QR code provided here.

If you are a UK tax payer and not a member of the Cathedral Stewardship Scheme, please use and sign the blue gift aid forms provided on your chair.

Preparation of the Table

LOVE UNKNOWN 86

'Thou art the Christ, O Lord,
the Son of God most high!
For ever be adored
that name in earth and sky,
in which,
though mortal strength may fail,
the saints of God at last prevail.
O surely he was blest
with blessedness unpriced,
who, taught of God, confessed
the Godhead in the Christ!
For of thy Church,
Lord, thou didst own thy saint a true foundation-stone.

Thrice fallen, thrice restored!
The bitter lesson learnt,
that heart for thee, O Lord,
with triple ardour burnt.
The cross he took he laid not down
until he grasped the martyr's crown.
O bright triumphant faith,
O courage void of fears!
O love most strong in death,
O penitential tears!
By these, Lord, keep us lest we fall,
and make us go
where thou shalt call.

W. Walsham How (1823-1897)

Taking of the Bread and Wine

Wise and gracious God,
you spread a table before us;
nourish your people with the word of life
and the bread of heaven.

Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer

President
The Lord be with you and al-so with you. Lift up your
All
hearts. We lift them to the Lord. Let us give thanks to the Lord
President
All
our God. It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

From sunrise to sunset this day is holy,
for Christ has risen from the tomb and scattered the darkness of death with light that will not fade.

This day the risen Lord walks with your gathered people,
unfolds for us your word,
and makes himself known in the breaking of the bread.

And though the night will overtake this day
you summon us to live in endless light,
the never-ceasing sabbath of the Lord.

And so, with choirs of angels and with all the heavenly host,
we proclaim your glory and join their unending song of praise:

The choir sings

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. Amen.

Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command, send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured
may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and,
taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice
made once for all upon the cross.

Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation,
we proclaim his death and resurrection
until he comes in glory.

The deacon says

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died:

Christ is risen:

Christ will come again.

Lord of all life,
help us to work together for that day
when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.
Look with favour on your people,
gather us in your loving arms
and bring us with Mary, Paul and all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.
Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Joining our prayers with those of the Church Universal, so we say, each in our own language, the prayer our Saviour taught us, Notre père, qui es aux cieux ... Missierna, li inti fis-smewwiet...

Vater unser im Himmel ... Padre nosso, que estais nos céus...
Padre nostro che sei nei cieli ... Ojczy nasz, któryś jest w niebie...
Otče náš, jenž jsi na nebesích ... ،الذّي في السّمَاوَاتِ...
Têve Mūsū, kuris esi danguje! ... Ein Tad, yr hwn wyt yn y nefoedd...
Tatal nostru care esti in ceruri ...

Our Father,
who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The president breaks the consecrated bread, saying:

We break this bread
to share in the body of Christ.
Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

The Giving of Communion

The president says

Draw near with faith. Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ which he gave for you, and his blood which he shed for you.

Eat and drink in remembrance that he died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

When the stewards invite you to go forward, please approach the two communion stations in single file along the side aisles of the Nave.

Please return to your place by the central aisle of the Nave.

Communion is in one kind only, and the minister distributing communion will say

The body of Christ.
Amen.

If you do not wish to receive communion, please do come and ask the minister for a blessing.

While you are waiting to go for communion you may wish to sit down.

During communion

The choir sings

The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want,
he maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death
I will fear no evil,
For you are with me, you will comfort me.
Surely goodness and mercy,
shall follow me all the days of my life,
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Howard Goodall (b. 1958)

Prayer after Communion

Silence is kept.

Almighty God,
you have taught us through your Son
that love is the fulfilling of the law:
grant that we may love you with our whole heart
and our neighbours as ourselves;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Almighty God,
we thank you for feeding us
with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies
to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit
to live and work
to your praise and glory.
Amen.

Final Hymn

WOODLANDS 186

Go forth and tell! O church of God, awake!
God's saving news to all the nations take;
proclaim Christ Jesus, saviour, Lord, and king,
that all the world his worthy praise may sing.

Go forth and tell! God's love embraces all;
he will in grace respond to all who call:
how shall they call if they have never heard the gracious invitation of his word?

Go forth and tell! The doors are open wide:
share God's good gifts - let no one be denied;
live out your life as Christ your Lord shall choose,
your ransomed powers for his sole glory use.

Go forth and tell! O church of God, arise!
go in the strength which Christ your Lord supplies;
go till all nations his great name adore
and serve him, Lord and king, for evermore.

Cathedral house groups and study groups.

The groups are designed to explore more about the Christian faith with each other in a safe and non-judgemental environment, whether you have been coming to church for many years or are new to Christianity. It can feel lonely trying to be a Christian if we don't have other people around with whom we can share our faith, so the groups give participants a chance to talk and discuss, to share their thoughts and experiences, and to enjoy each other's company, building friendships.

Over the next few months, the groups will be focussed on: ‘What do we actually believe?’ Each month, looking at a line from the Creed, alongside a passage from Mark’s Gospel, will be an opportunity to tease out different viewpoints and what we think we mean by ‘God’, ‘forgiveness’, ‘resurrection’ and much, much more! Each session is ‘stand-alone’, so anyone can join at any time.

If you are not already part of a group, please contact Rowena Pailing on missioner@blackburncathedral.co.uk (rather than house group leaders directly) to work out which group would be best for you.

We are also offering a Christian Basics course again this Autumn, looking at some of the same topics, but delivered slightly differently. No previous knowledge is assumed, so again, please contact missioner@blackburncathedral.co.uk if you are interested.

Café OPEN

Checks & Greys is a modern and relaxing space where you can arrange to meet for either business or pleasure, enjoy a traditional breakfast, tasty lunch or treat yourself to a wonderful homemade cake.

Please encourage friends and family to support the café following its forced closure during the pandemic, the team are very keen to welcome regular and new customers alike.

We are still taking every care to follow appropriate social distancing good practice in this act of worship. Our current practice remains in principle the same – keep socially distanced and keep safe. Our advice below is now recommended, not compulsory.

- Please wear a mask as you enter and leave the cathedral.
- Please do not sit next to another person unless you have their express permission to do so.
- Once you sit down you may choose to keep wearing your mask or remove it.
- You may join in the hymns if you wish.
- Communion will be in one kind only and is distributed in the north and south aisle of the nave – please follow the invitations of the stewards.
- If you missed the point for the collection, please give as you leave.

You have the option to use the NHS Test and Trace QR codes that are available in the building.

Please be in touch if you need us.

Thank you.

Keep safe.

Flowers today are given by Brian and Ruth Whittle in loving memory of Brian's brother John and other members of the family .
