

FLOWERS: Flowers today are given by Kath Atkinson in loving memory of Betty Parkinson.

VISITING CHOIR: During the half term break we are pleased to welcome St Mary's Ecumenical Choir, Shropshire, to help lead and enrich our choral worship.

NEWSLETTER: The monthly Newsletter is out today, please see for details regarding the upcoming Armistice services.

LUNCHTIME RECITAL: The Lunchtime recital series continues on Wednesday 31st October with a recital given by Daisy Belle Dumsday, Soprano. All are welcome – admission is free, but donations are requested.

ALL SOULS' DAY SERVICE: On Friday 2nd November there will be a sung Eucharist for All Souls at 7pm. In commemoration of the faithful departed, the names of those to be remembered will be read aloud during the service. On the welcome desk there is a list on which you may write the name of anyone you wish to be remembered.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL: The Sunday School Team would like to thank everyone who has donated stationery items and resources. We now have a much more resourced cupboard and feel we are well supported by everyone. Do feel free to come and talk to us about our ministry and any young visitors to Sunday services are most welcome to join us. The Sunday School is on half-term this week, resuming on Sunday 4th November.

“BROTHERS IN ARMS”: Thursday 8th November. The play Brothers in Arms is the true story of twin brothers, Noel and Christopher Chavasse, who served with great courage during the First World War. Their father was the Right Reverend Francis James Chavasse, Bishop of Liverpool. The play, which has recently been performed at the Edinburgh Fringe, celebrates their service, bravery and deep rooted Christian faith. Tickets, priced £2, are on sale from the Cathedral Shop. Proceeds will be donated to the British Legion.

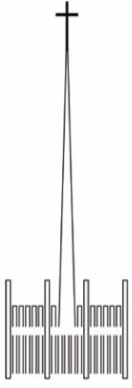

THE BLACKBURN CATHEDRAL RAMBLERS: The next ramble will be on the 10th November starting from The Flower Bowl PR3 0BT at 10.15. It is five miles long and on canal towpath via Myerscough Agricultural College almost all good paths/quiet lanes with no stiles. Lunch can be had at the Flower Bowl. Further information from Jeremy Duerden 07976 419198 or Stephen Adams 07934 966136

THE TROTH: On Monday 19th November 7.30pm. A gripping story of love and loss set during WWI. Moving from rural Punjab to the Belgian trenches where young Indian men have been brought to fight for the Allies, we learn about the secret promise made by one soldier as he makes the ultimate sacrifice to save another. Award-winning choreographer Gary Clarke unfolds the poignant narrative through contemporary dance, original music and powerful archive film. Tickets available from:

www.blackburncathedral.com What's On page; £8 with refreshments included.

CHRISTMAS CAROL: Tickets now on sale through Gill Fourie or via www.blackburncathedral.co.uk - please spread the word.

LEARN MORE ABOUT CHRISTIANITY: the Pilgrim course takes place on Wednesdays at 7pm. For more information: missioner@blackburncathedral.co.uk

Evensong Anthem Words:

Ah, see the fair chivalry come, the companions of Christ!
White horsemen, who ride on white horses, the Knights of God!
They, for their Lord and their Lover who sacrificed all
Save the sweetness of treading where He first trod!
These, thro' the darkness of death, the dominions of night,
Swept, and they woke in white places at morning tide:
They saw with their eyes and sang for joy at the sight,
They saw with their eyes the Eyes of the Crucified.
Now, whithersoever He goeth, with Him they go:
White horsemen, who ride on white horses, Oh, fair to see!
They ride where the rivers of paradise flash and flow,
White horsemen, with Christ their Captain, for ever He!
